Commodore: Ron Hammer

Thanks to all the members who helped prepare the club for and helped with the activities on opening day. (the outside kitchen help, running trash, cooking, and all the yard work that was done, our club looked real nice.)

We had a very nice turn out.

Thanks to all the Officers for attending in their dress whites, everyone looked great.

VICE COMMODORE: Tony Capuano

June 12th is the cut off day for signing up for the cruise. There are 9 openings left.

We are keeping the cruise to the top of the Bay
There are a few openings left on the 50-50 board.
Opening day was a very nice event.

Dock Master: Ed Kalesnik

Work continues on our docks and around the club. Thank you to all the members that are able to assist with this project. Thank you to the members who assisted with the installation of our new ramp.

There are work parties every day from 4—8 PM Mon—Fri, as well as Saturday 0900—till? Installing the new decking on our docks, please make an effort to assist whenever you can, if you have carpentry tools, please bring them with you.

President: Mark Gallone

Thanks to all the members who made opening day successful. All who attended had a good time.

Ted Archer will be the new House Committee Chairman, probably taking over in October. Congratulations, and thank you Ted!

Coast Guard Auxiliary 48: Jim Brennan:

In April or May, we will be holding a GPS for Mariners Course at Riverside, we are currently working on the class.

The class will cover the basics for GPS usage including important items such as:

Basic Use.

Making and Saving a Route.

Class will be $15.00 for RYC members to cover the cost of the materials you will receive.

And will be held in 2 (two) 4 hour sessions (dates to be determined). Details to follow, will be posted in the club.

2006 Princess Leanne Bird

Thank you Leanne for being willing to represent Riverside as our Princess again this year, you are doing a fantastic job and we all appreciate your willingness and dedication to the responsibilities of being Princess. We are very proud of all the hard work you are doing.
