Commodore: John McCann

We had a great cruise, probably one of the best I have gone on. Thank you to all who supported me these past 4 years. We all need to get behind and support our new Commodore, Ron Hammer.

VICE COMMODORE: Ron Hammer

Thanks to the fleet officers and everything you taught me this year.

Rear Commodore: Tom Cranford

Thank you to all who supported me while I was rear commodore. It has been quite an experience. I would like to see some of the new members step up to the plate and help the club out.

Dock Master: Ed Kalesnik

2006 Slip Deposits are DUE BY THE FIRST EXECUTIVE board meeting in November.

(WORK PARTY for members who still need their hours):
Nov 12 docks are to be pulled. Sign up sheet at the bar.

Fleet Chaplain: Steve Gunn

As we reflect on what a great summer we had, let us remember family and friends we miss. Recently our club, and our sister club at the West End Boat Club have experienced great losses; let's pray for them and their families and for God's protection over those we love. Let's continue to pray for persons we know who are dealing with serious illnesses. And let's provide support and comfort to them and their loved ones.

Entertainment: Donnie Warrington

NOV 12 is the installation dinner at the Ramada Inn in Essington. Sign up sheet at the bar. Nov 6 is the cut off for signing up.

Attendance:

400 people attended the Luau, 580 attended the Von Neida, 122 the VonNeida breakfast, 106 at the crab feast and 130 at closing day!

Paint and One Hull of a Time

John decided scrape and paint the hull of his 21' foot wood cruiser. Not being sure how much paint to buy and knowing that Paul, a close friend who had the same size boat, had recently painted his so he gave him a call.

"Paul," he said, "How many gallons of paint did you buy for your boat?"

"Six," said Paul.

John went out and bought six gallons of paint but when the job was done he had two gallons left over!

Calling Paul again, "Paul," he said, "I bought six gallons of paint for my boat , but I've got two gallons left over."

"Yes," said Paul, "So did I."

A mother and her young son were on a flight, flying Southwest Airlines. The son turned to his mother and asked "If dogs have baby dogs, and cats have baby cats, why don't planes have baby planes?". The mother told her son to ask the flight attendant. So the boy did. The flight attendant asked the boy if his mother told him to ask her, the boy admitted that she did. "Well, then, tell your mother that there are no baby planes because Southwest always pulls out on time, now go ask your mother explain that one to you".

Question:

Which American flag can never be lowered to half staff??

Answer: the American flag on the moon

A Message from Dave Taruino: Iraq

Hey everyone,

Well, October is here!!! My last month in the sand box. Just wanted to thank everyone again for the emails and care packages over the past year. They are moving us into tents in 2 days and I will loose the internet service in my room. I will only have very limited internet access thru the MWR facility which has 1 to 2 hour lines to use the internet and phones. I hope to fly into Kuwait on or around the 25th of Oct and back to the states sometime in early/mid Nov. The end is near and it feels great to say that after a long 18 months of active duty. I'm getting too old for this stuff!!!! I look forward to being a civilian again and having a good holiday vacation!!!

Take care and thanks again,

See you in the states!!!

Princess Leanne Bird with Commodore John McCann
